From BooklistThe author of this delightfully personal and sophisticated book wastes no time in covering sales and manufacturing topics (such as markets, suppliers and sources, and packaging) but advises caution and the need to consult professionals in legal and money matters. The main focus, however, is the more than 55 projects, which include sage blossom vinegar, catnip cuties, bay leaf topiary, garlic braid, pew decorations, and a pussy willow wreath. No templates, but this is a how-to guide worthy of most library collections. Barbara Jacobs
