Disappointed CustomerBy UnhappyAs an experienced crafter I found the instructions very confusing. Did not like the fact that you had to keep flipping from the front to back of the book. Once the item was completed, the liner did not fit a boutique style tissue box of three different brands that I tried. Very dissatisfied with the results.

Plastic-canvas enthusiasts will find five exciting patterns in this collection of designs for boutique-style tissue-box covers. Advanced crafters can create multipurpose motor vehicles using 7-count plastic canvas and three-inch canvas circles with worsted-weight yarn. Patterns include locomotive, school bus, ice cream truck, fire engine, and florist truck. Each design also comes with a bonus pattern for matching coasters that tuck into a hidden compartment under the hood of the tissue-topper vehicle.
