Five StarsBy Joella FordUnique collage book, well presented.8 of 8 people found the following review helpful. OutstandingBy Janet StreepeyThis is the best and most exciting book I have ever read about collage. I cannot recommend it highly enough and I am an art book junkie. I have book about collage by Gerald Brommer and Anita Leland to name two of my favorites. But they are western artists. This book is eastern and it is breathtaking. So painterly and so profound and simple.The only thing I hope changes in the second edition is the translation. The translator, Kitty Lau, is more than competent in English as a second language, but nearly every sentence has some non standard form that reminds me that this book is translated. How hard would it be to have a final edit from a native speaker? That being said, the rest is wonderful.

This beautifully illustrated guide to Chinese paper collage art demonstrates the techniques and philosophy behind this creative and fun art form. Paper collage art has a special charm. It can be as exquisite as oil painting or as freehand (xieyi) as ink wash painting. A paper collage art is a perfect mean to express humor and romance, demonstrate subjective perspectives and emotions, record special moments, and depict favorite scenes. Collage Art teaches you how to pick up some magazines, newspaper, and color paper around you that are no longer needed and put your ideas onto a piece of paper. You can create some decorations for your desk, bedroom, office, as well as some collage crafts for your friends on festivals and weddings. These collages not only present your unique style but also will also get lots of compliments!

"Since these techniques are appropriate for all skill levels and ages, many readers may enjoy sharing this book with their children (or their parents)." Library Journal "Paper Collage Chinese Style provides an excellent intro to a niche papercraft, and a fascinating insight into Chinese papercrafting and artistic traditions." The Papercraft Post blog About the Author Zhu Liqun is a senior Master of Arts and Crafts, a member of the Shanghai Society for the Study of Folk Literature and Art, a member of the Shanghai Arts and Crafts Association, and director of the Paper Art Professional Committee. Working in art and industrial design for over 30 years, he has won many awards at large art design contests in China. The Zhu Liqun Paper Art Museum, formally launched in June 2010 in Shanghai, displays thousands of works of paper art including furniture, lamps, sculpture, decorative carvings in relief, and human figures. All were designed and created by Zhu Liqun and his team over a span of ten years. Their innovative practice has led to the growth and spread of paper art to other fields, and they have also published Paper Quilling: Chinese Style, Paper Relief: Chinese Style.
