I don't believe the author has ever really done much scrapbooking, but I enjoyed that angle anyway. The protagonist is always in a rush, and so is the story - not a style of writing I care for. Nonetheless, it was a mystery, and it was about scrapbooking (or about using a few specialty papers, anyway), so I appreciated the effort. I took it along for a train trip to New Orleans, not realizing that was the book's setting! That made it more fun, especially on the way back, after I'd been to the places she talked about! Don't expect much if you're an ardent scrapbooker.. On the other hand, we ardent scrapbookers love anything scrapbooking, so we'll take what we can get!

I absolutely loved this book and I love Carmela!! She is one of my favorite characters...next to Theodosia Browning from The Tea Shoppe Mysteries...also by Laura Childs. I could not put this book down. The characters are fully fleshed out, the mystery kept me guessing until the end and I loved the fast pace of the book. I would definitely recommend this to anyone! I love Laura Childs' books.

The second Scrapbooking Mystery from the New York Times bestselling author of the popular Tea Shop Mysteries. Carmela Bertrand is hosting a late-night Crop Till You Drop session at her quaint French Quarter scrapbooking shop, Memory Mine. All the usual suspects have turned up to trim, decorate, color, and gossip. But their all-night crop comes to a screeching halt when a neighboring antiques-shop owner winds up murdered in the alley behind the cozy store. And when Carmela and her customers become the focus of the police investigation, the scrapbooking expert realizes it's her responsibility to rearrange the jumble of clues and pick out the real killer before he strikes again
Scrapbook tips included!

"Just the right blend of cozy fun and clever plotting."
