I took quilting classes with her back in the 90's and was a regular customer at her shop from the time that it opened. She has written a wonderful book of primitive projects. It doesn't surprise me. Her attention to quality and her talent for designing creations that feel like home are so well showcased here. I have made hooked rugs and applique projects designed by her and am blessed to have them grace my home and those of friends and family. I am so excited that her talent is out there for the world to experience with the publishing of this book. I plan to make several of the projects. Can't wait to build up my stash of wool again and get started, and I have the perfect fabrics for that basket quilt. Love you, Jeni, and I treasure this book full of cozy folk art projects--PERFECT!
