Love this bookBy CustomerI was looking for some red and white patterns and there are quite a few that are inspiring me to get started. Love this book!

Twelve traditional patterns drafted from a private collection of antique red-and-white quilts become a dozen fresh ways to enjoy the classic combination in Red, White Quilted by Linda Baxter Lasco. Apply today's quiltmaking techniques and add quilting designs from some of today's best machine and longarm quilters for a spectacular finish!

Included are complete instructions for each wallhanging to full-size pattern along with thoughts from the renowned quilters to inspire your own quilting solutions. A gallery of even more red-and-white beauties tops off this beautiful book.

About the Author Linda Baxter Lasco came to quilting as the result of a college art project and hasn't been far from her machine since. An avid scrap-piecer and machine quilter, she has taught and lectured on both techniques for quilt guilds and at AQS quilt shows. She has been with AQS as senior editor since 2006.
