

Repairing and Restoring Furniture: The Complete Manual 17-20th Century

V. J. Taylor

*ePub | *DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF*

#2792466 in Books David n Charles UK 1992-10Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 10.75 x 7.75 x 1.00l,
#File Name: 0715398857224 pages | File size: 75.Mb

V. J. Taylor : Repairing and Restoring Furniture: The Complete Manual 17-20th Century before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Repairing and Restoring Furniture: The Complete Manual 17-20th Century:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great entry level book.By Mark CutrightIm a curious fella and wanted to know more. You could do far worse than this book. Its a great entry level book that explains a lot of jargon and shows the damage, wear and tear that occurs in different styles of furniture. I really like that it demonstrates the kinds of stresses in furniture and how to counter them when repairing.Good book to have.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Classic for Restorer's LibraryBy E.V.GrantSimply the best book we have seen for repairing and restoring old furniture. Detailed and expert.

Three kinds of woodwork are dealt with in this book - reviving, repairing and restoring furniture. "Reviving" is usually confined to furniture from the 1950s onwards which can loosely be described as "non-period". "Repairing" involves making good breakages as a result of misuse, attending to troubles caused by warping, remaking loose joints and touching up or completely repolishing faulty polished surfaces. Such work is more difficult and time-consuming than reviving. "Restoration", or "conservation", involves the use of materials which must be traditional and of the type used when the piece was first made. The author assumes that the reader has already reached a level in woodworking skill higher than that required for straightforward DIY jobs, and the related crafts of polishing, upholstering and veneering are also described to the degree to which they are required in repair and restoration.